LOCAL STUDENT HAS ROLE IN UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA'S "DON JUAN"

MISSOULA -

Bonnie Ortner of Chinook plays a member of the chorus in the University of Montana's original comedy production, "The Escapades of Don Juan." The play is being presented at 8 p.m. March 5-8 and 12-15 in the premiere showing of the Open Space Theatre at UM's Performing Arts and Radio/TV Center.

Ortner is the daughter of George and Linda Ortner of Chinook, and is a freshman in drama/acting.

"The Escapades of Don Juan" was written by UM Drama Professor Rolland Meinholtz. The play was adapted and arranged from Mozart's Don Giovanni, Moliere's Don Juan and various legends and writings about Don Juan. The show is a play-within-a-play set in a girl's convent school during the eighteenth century. The professional actors play the parts of Don Juan and Sganarelle and join a cast of 22 schoolgirls to perform a play about Don Juan that is intended to teach the girls about the immorality of man.

Tickets for the play are $6, with group discounts available. There will be no regular seating; instead, the audience is encouraged to bring pillows, lawnchairs or other portable seating to the performance. The audience will be following the play as it is performed in several playing areas throughout the room. For tickets and further information call the Performing Arts and Radio/TV Center Box office at 243-4581. The box office is open 11 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1-5 p.m. Saturdays.
